Anaheim Resort Area Changed Sites

Parks

Orange
Orange, CA
Peters Canyon Regional Park 714-973-6611 Canyon View Ave
This park has over 350 acres of coastal sage scrub, woodlands, a freshwater marsh, and a 55 acre reservoir. They have a variety of dirt paths and trails (approx. 2-3 miles) which are frequented by hikers, mountain bikers, equestrians and of course, leashed dogs. All trails are closed for three days following rainfall. To get there from Hwy 5 or Hwy 405, take the Jamboree Road exit north. Then turn left at Canyon View Ave. Proceed 1/4 mile to the park entrance and parking lot. Maps should be available at a stand near the parking lot.

Lake Shasta Changed Sites

Attractions

Lake Shasta
Lake Shasta, CA
Self Guided Audio Cassette Tour 530-926-4511 204 West Alma St
This free audio cassette tour is available when you travel the Upper Sacramento River Canyon on Interstate 5, between Mt. Shasta and Anderson in scenic Northern California. The tape and its original sound track are keyed to I-5 exit signs traveling at 65 mph. The tapes tell a colorful story filled with details of more than a century of traveling and recreating in the canyon. Pick up and drop off the free "Sacramento Canyon Auto Tour" audio cassette tape. If you are traveling south on I-5, you can pick up a tape at the Mt. Shasta Ranger Station located at 204 West Alma St. in Mt. Shasta. You can drop off your southbound tape at either the Shasta Lake Ranger Station on the east side of I-5 at the Mountain Gate exit or the California Welcome Center in Anderson, located at 1699 Highway 273, adjacent to I-5. Going north, you can pick up a tape at the California Welcome Center in Anderson and drop it off at the Mt. Shasta Ranger Station. There is even an after hours drop box in Mt. Shasta.

Long Beach Area Changed Sites

Beaches

Long Beach
Long Beach, CA
Long Beach Dog Beach Zone 562-570-3100 between Roycroft and Argonne Avenues
This 3 acre off-leash unfenced dog beach is the only off-leash dog beach in Los Angeles County. It is open daily from 6am until 8pm. It opened on August 1, 2003 and is a one year pilot program. The "zone" is 235 yards along the water and 60 yards deep. There is a fresh water fountain called the "Fountain of Wool" which is located near the restrooms at the end of Granada Avenue, near the Dog Zone. Only one dog is allowed per adult and dog owners are entirely responsible for their dog's actions. The beach is located between Roycroft and Argonne avenues in Belmont Shore, Long Beach. It is a few blocks east of the Belmont Pier and Olympic pool. From Ocean Blvd, enter at Bennett Avenue for the beachfront metered parking lot. The cost is 25 cents for each 15 minutes from 8am until 6pm daily. Parking is free after 5pm in the beachfront lot at the end of Granada Avenue. You can check with the website <http://www.hautedogs.org> for updates and additional rules about the Long Beach Dog Beach Zone.

Los Angeles Changed Sites

Parks

Los Angeles
Los Angeles, CA
Runyon Canyon Park Mulholland Hwy
From this popular hiking trail you can see views of Hollywood, the Wilshire District, and the skyscrapers of downtown L.A. This park has mostly off-leash and some on-leash hiking trails. The top of the trail is located off Mulholland Hwy (about 2 miles east of Laurel Canyon Blvd) at Desmond Street in the Hollywood Hills. The bottom part of the trail is located at the end of Fuller Ave. Parking is available on the street. The trailhead might be kind of tricky to find from Fuller, but you'll probably see other people going to or coming from the trail.

Monterey Changed Sites

Accommodations

Monterey

Monterey, CA
Best Western Monterey Beach Hotel 831-394-3321 2600 Sand Dunes Drive
This beachfront hotel allows dogs. Dogs stay in the first floor rooms on the garden side (not facing the beach). They originally just allowed small dogs, but now they allow all dogs that are well-behaved and well-trained. Dogs are allowed on the beaches that stretch from this hotel down to Fisherman's Wharf - about 2 miles. If you want a longer walk, once at Fisherman's Wharf, continue on the paved Monterey Recreation Trail. The hotel is located off Hwy 1 at the Del Rey Oaks exit. There is a $25 per day pet fee.

Orange County Beaches Changed Sites

Beaches

Huntington Beach

Huntington Beach, CA

Huntington Dog Beach 714-841-8644 Pacific Coast Hwy (Hwy 1)

This beautiful beach is about a mile long and allows dogs from 5 am to 10 pm. Dogs must be under control but may be off leash and owners must pick up after them. Dogs are only allowed on the beach between Golden West Street and Seapoint Ave. Please adhere to these rules as there are only a couple of dog-friendly beaches left in the entire Los Angeles area. The beach is located off the Pacific Coast Hwy (Hwy 1) at Golden West Street. Please remember to pick up after your dog... the city wanted to prohibit dogs in 1997 because of the dog waste left on the beach. But thanks to The Preservation Society of Huntington Dog Beach (<http://www.dogbeach.org>), it continues to be dog-friendly. City ordinances require owners to pick up after their dogs.

San Francisco Changed Sites

Parks

San Francisco

San Francisco, CA

Alta Plaza Park Clay Street

This park is bordered by Jackson, Clay, Steiner and Scott streets. It is across from the tennis courts. The first Sunday of every month is Pug Day at this park. It's a casual meeting of pug owners which takes place at the north end of park, usually between 3:30 - 5:00, weather permitting. At the gathering, there can be 20-50 pugs. Dogs need to be on leash but residents are trying to make it a legal off-leash area.

San Francisco, CA

Golden Gate National Recreation Area 415-556-0560

This dog-friendly Recreation Area spans 76,500 acres of land and water. It starts at the coastline south of San Francisco, goes into San Francisco and then north of the Golden Gate Bridge. Many of the San Francisco beaches and parks are part of this Rec Area including Baker Beach, Fort Funston and Ocean Beach. One of the trails is located south of Baker Beach. From Lincoln Avenue, turn onto Bowley Street and head towards the ocean. There is a parking lot next to the beach. Dogs must be on leash.

Reno Changed Sites

Parks

Reno

Reno, NV

Rancho San Rafael Park 775-828-6642 1595 N. Sierra Street

Dogs are allowed in the undeveloped areas of this park. Dogs must be leashed with one exception. Dogs may be off-leash only at certain times at the multi-use pasture area. If there are special events or activities on the multi-use area then dogs are not allowed at all on the field. This includes when the hay is being cut and harvested. Portions of the field may be muddy when the pasture is being irrigated. Leashed dogs are allowed on a hiking and walking path which crosses over McCarren Blvd. It is a dirt trail which narrows to a single track trail once you cross over McCarren Blvd. Just be careful when crossing over McCarren because the speed limit on the road is about 45-50mph. To get there from Hwy 80, exit Keystone Ave. Head north on Keystone. Turn right onto Coleman Drive. Take Coleman until it almost ends and turn right into the park. Park near the Coleman intersection and the trailhead will be nearby.
